

It is the simplest way to fill batteries

No motor, no electrical power.

Simply insert the tube into the acid tank and the hand pump will transfer the liquid from the tank to the cell.

The injector will feed the required amount of acid into the cell until the correct level is reached.

